A Pretty Debutante Tea for Miss Gertrude Grossman at Twin Oaks—Coming Weddings to Take Place Here and at Other Places.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt will entertain at dinner November 16.

The reign of the debutante began yesterday, with the presentation of Miss Gertrude Hubbard Grossman, who was introduced at a tea given for her by her grandmother, Mrs. Gardiner Hubbard, at "Twin Oaks," her country home in Woodley Lane.

The splendid old mansion, which is one of the most historic and interesting houses in the vicinity of Washington, was decorated with autumn leaves and Southern smilax, and in the drawing room were banked the floral tributes showered upon the pretty bride in honor of the day.

Nature was in gracious mood, and her sunshine and blue skies added no little to the charm of the afternoon. The drive along the country roads was a pleasure of itself, and through the open doorways of the house one caught picturesque vistas of sloping lawns and mighty trees—among them the famous oaks that give the place its name.

The debutante, radiant in white silk and carrying an armful of bouquets—one of orchids and the others of carnations and chrysanthemums, was introduced by Mrs. Hubbard, others of the receiving party being Mrs. (Grand) Bell, Mrs. Clara Bell, and Miss Alice Bell.

Mrs. Charles B. Woodcock and Miss Deering poured tea at a flower fragrant table, and among the attractive maids on social duty—several of whom are to make their formal bow to society in the near future, were Miss Bell, Miss Gray, Miss Finkle, Miss Ashton, Miss McCauley, Miss Helen Ray, Miss Marie Barnes, Miss Kerr, and Miss Wilsheir, of New Haven.

The Washington Alumnae Chapter of the Woman's College of Baltimore held its annual reunion and luncheon in the president's parlors of the new Willard yesterday afternoon. A business meeting for the election of officers for the ensuing year preceded the luncheon. The toasts, most gracefully introduced by Mary Owen Dean, '96, were based on Peter Newell's nonsense rhymes, and offered inspiration for the discussion of "Rich," "Dignity," and "Loyalty." College colors and symbols were in evidence in the decorations, and college songs and reminiscences were features of the gathering, unanimously declared to be the most successful in the history of the chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Mullan have sent out cards for the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Marie, to James Waddell Bowden, of South Carolina, Wednesday evening, November 20.

The second meeting of the year of the Washington branch of the Association of College Alumnae, held at the Metropolitan Hotel, Friday afternoon, November 16, was presided over by Miss Kate Halliday Chaborn, former secretary-treasurer of the general association, and Mrs. S. B. Parmann, of Boston, ex-president of the general association, were the guests of the afternoon. Reports from the delegates to the annual convention at Buffalo were given, and several new members joined.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Lillian A. Roderick to Mr. F. Harold Deland, Friday evening, November 16, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride, 211 E. 11th St.

The students of the Bliss Electrical School were entertained at Metzger's Hall Thursday evening by the officers of the school. The receiving party consisted of Principal Louis D. Bliss and Mrs. Bliss, Treasurer W. N. Weston and Mrs. Weston, Mrs. F. G. Barber, and the Misses Katharine Sweeney, Ethel E. Foster, Mary Shallenberger, Josephine Shallenberger, Laura Walker, Minnie Power, Anna Hayes and Mary McKeever. Musical selections were rendered by Messrs. P. W. Harding, W. E. Stamm, Miss Nola and Miss Cowling's orchestra of young ladies.

Mr. Lee M. Tefft gave a reception. Speeches were made by Messrs. Louis D. Bliss, W. N. Weston, W. H. King, all of Washington, and Messrs. John P. Grier, North Dakota; Lorenz C. Farwell, of Massachusetts; A. L. T. Lobato, of Brazil, and G. J. Linney, of Ohio. The hall was tastefully decorated with palms, flags and flowers. Refreshments were served after the completion of the program.

Among those present were Mr. Yorkie Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan H. Stickney, Mr. George W. Smith, Mr. F. L. Ish, Miss Harriet Bugbee, Miss Mary Bugbee, Miss Mary Corn, Miss Anna Ulico, Miss Clara Moran, Miss Jessie Cowling, Mr. H. E. Stradley, Mr. F. E. Robinson, Mr. F. S. Bowser, Mr. A. G. Davidson, Mr. C. C. McEwen, Mr. C. C. Stokely, Mr. J. D. Baese, Mr. W. E. Stamm, Mr. Edward F. Conner, Mr. J. R. Dodd, Mr. Charles F. Fisher, Mr. A. Allen, Mr. William Handford, Mr. Howard Mackey, Mr. Luke L. Hayer, Mr. Karl J. Phelps, Mr. R. P. Tripp, Mr. H. B. Switzer, Mr. Prontie A. Shreve, Mr. J. C. Vilms, Mr. Owen Tucker, Mr. Edgar A. Shreve, Mr. Edward Eichenberger, Mr. Edward Hubbard, Mr. Antonio S. Pereira, Mr. Benedito L. David, Mr. T. J. Ingwersoll, Mr. W. Harding, Mr. J. W. Wheeler, Mr. Samuel P. Dodd, Mr. Elmer Orrison, Mr. C. Mendenhall, Mr. Frank W. Meade, Mr. L. R. Brooks, Mr. H. Sellers, Mr. C. W. Leonard, Mr. G. H. Milford, Mr. Louis Grander, Mr. G. Gordon Bailey, Mr. C. James, Mr. Ray Cogswell, Mr. Clifford H. Brown and Mr. H. F. Volke.

Dr. C. V. Petteway and wife have returned from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Chicago and Moline, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Whittemore will spend several weeks at the Arlington. They expect to go to Kentucky early next month to remain the greater part of the winter.

Representative Forrester has taken the house of Judge Nott, 322 Connecticut Avenue, for the winter.

The marriage of Miss Mary Sweitzer, only daughter of the late Gen. Nelson B. Sweitzer, to Lient. Joseph Strauss, U. S. N., was solemnized at St. John's Church yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Smilax and bridal blossoms formed a floral arch to mark the pews reserved for the family and specially honored guests, and the chancel was decorated with white flowers and palms. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, but was escorted to the chancel by her cousin, Mr. J. Bowen Sweitzer, of Pittsburgh. Her wedding gown was of ivory satin, trimmed with old family point lace. A point lace veil, fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms, fell to the edge of her gracefully sweeping train, and over her forehead flashed the diamond tiara. The wedding flowers were lilies of the valley, and bride roses were arranged in a shower bouquet. The ushers who seated the guests, and later preceded the bride to the chancel, were Lieutenant Beecher, Lieutenant Culver, Lieutenant Commander Clelland Davis, and Lieutenant Commander McCormie. Lieutenant Gibson, who acted as best man, attended the groom from the vestry to the chancel, where they awaited the bride. Rev. Dr. Mackay-Smith officiated. Mrs. Sweitzer laid aside her mourning for the occasion, and wore a strikingly elegant toilet of mauve silk trimmed with white lace and white-colored velvet. Her small bouquet of white pansies was trimmed with velvet panicles in the natural shades. Mrs. Sweitzer held a reception afterward at the residence of General Gillespie, who graciously placed his home at the disposal of the widow and daughter of his brother officer and valued friend. Mrs. Gillespie, wearing gray brocade with soft touches of lace, awaited in receiving the guests. When Lieutenant Strauss and his bride left for their wedding trip the latter was attired for traveling in dark blue cloth and a black velvet hat trimmed with plumes.

The groom is the inventor of the superposed turrets with which the newest battleships have been equipped, and is in charge of the "Protégé" grounds at Indian Head, where he will take his bride. Among the out-of-town guests present were William G. Park, Mr. and Mrs. James Byrne, cousins of the bride, and Miss Beale Strauss, the groom's sister, all of New York.

The Secretary of War, accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Book, has gone to Cuba, N. Y., to visit his son, who has been recalled to Hamilton College, but is now recovering.

Mrs. Malcolm Crichton has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Antoinette Kennedy, to Mr. Snowden Ashford, of New York, November 16, at 8:30 o'clock, at "Havenwood," Berkeley Springs, W. Va. Carriages will be in waiting for the train that leaves Washington at 2:45 p. m. of that date over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

At the dinner given by the Surgeon General of the Navy and Mrs. Van Rensselaer on Friday evening, the guests were, in addition to Mrs. George Place, of New York, their guests of honor, the Assistant Secretary of War and Mrs. Sanger, General and Mrs. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McKenna, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Brown, Denton Stevens and Merrill Hubbard, of Pittsburgh.

Thursday will be marked by several weddings of social interest to Washington, though they will take place in other cities. Miss Florence Foraker and Mr. Randolph Matthews will be married in Cleveland. The attendants will be Miss Julia Foraker, Miss Lucy Le Boutillier, Miss Daniel Matthews, the groom's sister; Miss Louise Desher, of Columbus, and Miss Rola Wallace, of Philadelphia, who has been so frequent a visitor to Secretary Foraker's Washington home. Mrs. May Rogers Lovell will act as matron of honor, and Mr. Thornton, of Pittsburgh, will act as best man. The groomsmen selected are Mr. J. Benson Foraker, jr.; Mr. Francis King Walworth, of Philadelphia, whose marriage to Miss Julia Foraker will be as equally fashionable a ceremony in the season; Messrs. Charles E. Brown, Denton Stevens and Merrill Hubbard, of Pittsburgh.

Another wedding of interest to occur on Thursday will be that of Miss Madeleine Gary, youngest and only unmarried daughter of ex-Postmaster General and Mrs. Gary, and Dr. Andrew R. Whitridge, which will take place in Baltimore at noon at Brown Memorial Presbyterian Church, and be followed by a reception at the Gary's town home.

The marriage of Miss Cornelia Tucker, daughter of Col. John S. Tucker, of this city, to Mr. Harry Taylor Poor, son of the late Alfred Poor, of Baltimore, will take place Thursday at Christ Church, Norfolk, Va. Miss Tucker will be given in marriage by her father. The maid of honor will be Miss Elizabeth Winn, of Norfolk, and the best man will be Mr. Frank Thomas, of Baltimore. The ushers will be Mr. John H. Williams, of New York, formerly of Baltimore; Mr. Robert Walworth, of Norfolk; Mr. Frank Tucker, of New York; Mr. Frank Rogers, Mr. Harry Riggs, Mr. Dudley Williams, Mr. W. W. Baldwin, and Mr. James McKeay, of Baltimore.

Mrs. Walworth, the bride-elect's aunt, will be the hostess of the party, and a small company at breakfast afterward.

Miss Phyllis Langhorne and Mr. Reginald Brooks are to have a Southern wedding and all the attending hospitalities that such a ceremony entails. A special train is to bring the groom's family and friends from New York to Washington, Va., and others will arrive from Baltimore and Richmond. The ceremony is to be celebrated Thursday at the Brandon Hotel, which is to be fitted and decorated expressly for the occasion. The main hall is to be a room of greenery, and the service will be performed there by Bishop Gibson, of Richmond, assisted by Rev. Mr. Nevee, Mrs. Robert G. Shaw, of Boston, a sister of the bride, will be matron of honor, and Mr. James A. Sullivan, of New York, who married Miss Phil Potter, is to be Mr. Brooks' best man. Miss Gladys Brooks, a sister of the bridegroom-elect, Miss Christine Atkinson, of Baltimore; Miss Atkinson and Miss Christian, of Richmond, are to be the bridesmaids. The groom's attendants are Messrs. G. G. Amory, F. M. Forbes, G. R. Rice, R. N. Hollaway and John Warren, all of Boston; H. B. Duryea, Henry W. Bull, L. S. Thompson, H. M. Harrison, Franklin L. Peck, Arthur T. Kemp and John R. L. Vermon, all of New York; G. R. Fearing, of Newport, and W. H. Langhorne, of Greenwood, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks will spend much of the winter at Alketh, S. C., and will go to Mirador, the country place of the Langhorne, for the Christmas holidays.

The marriage of Miss Dorothy Rockhill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rockhill, to Mr. Joseph Hoppin, will take place November 26 at the residence which Mr. and Mrs. Rockhill have just taken, 828 I Street. Miss Rockhill has recently returned from Europe, where she has studied and traveled for the past year. Mr. Hoppin is a son of the late Van Corhland Hoppin and his family is one of the wealthiest and most prominent in Boston.

Miss McKenna entertained a number of friends at a tea given yesterday afternoon for her house guest, Miss Sloan.

Mr. Berkeley Young, of this city, was one of the ushers of the wedding last night in Baltimore of Mr. S. S. Foraker and Miss Emily H. Emory, which took place at the Emory home. The original plan for a church ceremony was abandoned because of the illness of the groom.

Mme. Yale's HAIR TONIC.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: It affords me great pleasure to call the attention of the public to Mme. Yale's Exquisite Hair Tonic, which is the first and only remedy known to chemistry which positively turns grey hair back to its original color. It has been used for years on record that Mme. M. Yale—world-famous woman chemist—has made this most valuable hair tonic, and it is now being sold in the world upon receipt of price, $1.00. This ring has been tested in every conceivable way and has proved itself to be the ONLY Hair Tonic. IT STOPS HAIR FALLING immediately and creates a luxuriant growth. Contains no injurious ingredients. Physicians and chemists insist to analyze it. It is not sticky or greasy; on the contrary, it makes the hair soft, youthful, fluffy, and keeps it in perfect condition and holds with hair a little grey, streaked grey, entirely grey, and with bald heads, it is especially recommended.

Everything in Fine Furs.

As a matter of course the Saks Furs include the jaunty and captivating styles that catch the popular fancy from year to year, as well as the more stately creations; and the rarest of costly skins are employed, as well as those of lesser value. And this implies a very wide range of prices. But the special feature of our Fur dealing is this:

Whatever the garment may be, we know it from the beginning. The skins are of our selection, it is our design, our manufacture. It is priced with an accurate knowledge of what it is worth, and it is impossible that a buyer of our Furs shall suffer loss or disappointment from hidden blemishes or slighted work.

Fair prices for absolutely reliable furs, whether costly or otherwise.

Imperial Crown Russian Sable, This fur will be much in evidence this season. Long Boas, Neckpieces, Capes. Also a large line of choice skins.

Seal Jackets. A specialty with this house, and an assortment not equaled in this city. Many new styles—the popular standard, the new short jacket or the blouse; also the double breasted, with tight back.

Hudson Bay Sable, In long Boas, cluster Boas, Victorias, and Capes and a superb collection of skins for selection.

Persian Coats, The most stunning and attractive coat for street wear. The loose front or tight-fitting, with revers and collar of Hudson Bay Sable, Mink, Chinchilla, or Baum Marten.

Silver Foxes, This most fashionable and attractive of all Neckpieces, with large Muffs.

Neck Pieces, We produce every year an assortment of novel and fashionable pieces that "take" extremely well. We show them now in all the right furs, including Silver Fox, Russian and Hudson Bay Sable, Mink, Black Marten, Seal, Persian Lamb, and Sable and Isabella Fox.

Bear Boas, These excellent long Boas with Muffs to match, made from the skins of black and cinnamon bear cubs, are distinctly fashionable, quiet, and dignified.
